5263-Sept. 8, 22, Oct. 6, 30.METHODS OF CANADIANS REMIND
OBSERVER OF TALES OF REDSKINSFrenchmen Say They Use All
Cleverness of North American Indians in Warfare

PARIS.—"The life of the Canadians at the front takes one back to the tales of the North American Indian which were the delight of our youth," writes Maurice Barres, the French Academician, who is on a visit to the fighting lines as the guest of the French staff.

"This week," he explains, "I saw the huts of the Canadians, built of trees saved lengthwise, exactly like the log cabins which they build for hunting boxes or the log houses they inhabit sometimes in the prairies north of the Great Lakes.

"A survival of the old Indian romance is found in the Canadian army. Trappers in khaki were shown me who make use of the thousand tricks of their trade against the enemy. They hunt him with the williness of the old scalp-bunters, toned down by English humanity.

"Following in the wake of Germans crawling across the corn fields, the Canadian manages to creep along without causing a single leaf to move. They remain for hours on the watch, lying on their backs and studying the ground around them by means of a little mirror. Should Germans, reassured by the long silence over the still fields, venture out, he is pounced upon, bound with rope in a couple of seconds. The other day, after a series of such fruitful exploits, the Canadian scouts threw over into the German trenches a number of little cards, inscribed: 'It is useless for you to send out any more patrols; you have Canadians in front of you.'

"I know, of course, that among these volunteers there are many modern Canadians, business men, professional men, workmen. All are not sons of trappers or backwoodsmen. But it is a fact that they have more initiative more ingenuity and more enterprise than European soldiers. And to look at them, what tenacity there is in their expression.

"In a huge open-air depot, I was examining their military transport vans, all marked with the maple leaf, when my eyes fell on a little tent covered with weird stripes and figures in green paint.

"What is that, I asked.

"A Canadian officer's tent.

"But those green stripes?

"Oh, nothing! The background has merely been arranged so that, from above, it will seem to form part of the meadows and woods.

"But I had recognized, amid the splashes of paint, various hieroglyphs which again took my mind back to the days of the redskins—the cat's head, the black-hand, and finally the Swastika, that talisman which has come down to us from the farthest ages.

Starting as a printer's devil, John Christian Watson, now travelling in Canada, rose to be premier of Australia.

Balloons were used by the French in war in the eighteenth century.

The United States income tax in the last fiscal year yielded $79,828,875.
